

FOR STUDENTS COMING IN TO SECONDE

Congratulations! You have been offered place in the Lycée Edouard Branly's British international section! We are looking forward to meeting you and exploring English Literature together!

The students who do well in the section are those who read in English!

Please purchase and read TWO of the following books.

Americanah by Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie
Orbital by Samantha Harvey
Brick Lane by Monica Ali
The Librarian by Salley Vickers
The Book Thief by Markus Zusak
The Handmaid's Tale, Margaret Atwood
White Teeth, Zadie Smith
Great Expectations, Charles Dickens
Persuasion, Jane Austen
The Color Purple, Alice Walker
I Know why the Caged Bird Sings, Maya Angelou

FOR STUDENTS COMING IN TO PREMIÈRE

We will be starting the BFI syllabus in September. You need to prepare for this by reading the following books over the summer. Make sure you understand them and take notes on anything that jumps out at you as important: interesting plot developments, characterisation, striking uses of language. There will be a brief assessment on these texts in September. It doesn't matter which edition you buy.

Sweet Sorrow by David Nicholls
Emma by Jane Austen
Brick Lane by Monica Ali

FOR STUDENTS COMING IN TO TERMINALE

We will be doing the last part of your syllabus next year. You need to buy and (re) read the following books. There will be a short assessment of your summer reading in September.

Homefire by Kamila Shamsie

The Bloody Chamber and other short stories by Angela Carter

Frankenstein by Mary Shelley
